Results Day Questions

Can students still apply to The Henley College after they receive their results?

Yes. We welcome applications following GCSE Results Day, although some courses may become full quickly due to high demand. We encourage students to apply as early as possible to secure the widest choice of options.

What is the deadline for applications?

Applications will remain open until early September, subject to course availability. However, many courses are expected to reach capacity before this point, so students are encouraged to apply as soon as possible to secure their preferred pathway.

Can students speak to someone at The Henley College on Results Day or afterwards?

Yes. Our Admissions and Careers teams will be available throughout the enrolment period to offer advice, guidance and support with applications, course choices and next steps.

Can students call The Henley College for advice?

Yes. Our GCSE Helpdesk will be open from 9.00am on Thursday 20th August through to Friday 28th August at 4.00pm.
Telephone: 01491 634321

Can students check which courses still have places available?

Availability can change quickly during enrolment. Students will be advised during their interview and guidance appointment if a course is nearing capacity or full, and our team will help explore suitable alternative pathways where needed.

How do students apply?

Students can apply online via The Henley College website or contact Admissions for support and guidance.
