

Ministry of Defence

Civil Service Careers

RAF High Wycombe

The Ministry of Defence

The Ministry of Defence protects the security, independence, and interests of our country at home and abroad. As a civil servant working for the Ministry of Defence, you can work alongside colleagues who serve in the Royal Air Force (RAF). Civil servants can be based at RAF locations across the UK and are an essential part of the Air Command workforce, enabling us to deliver a world class, global, modern Royal Air Force.

RAF High Wycombe

RAF High Wycombe is a major administrative support station and houses the headquarters for Air Command.

There are a variety of civil servant roles available at RAF High Wycombe, covering a range of professions: Human Resources, Finance, Data & Technology, Project Delivery, Commercial, Communications.

You could be working as an Administrator, Occupational Psychologist, Public Relations Manager or Senior Data Engineer – just to name a few! Apply today for a civil service career at RAF High Wycombe.

Benefits

Benefits for Air Command civil servants include:

- 25 days paid annual leave rising (1 day per year) to 30 days upon completion of 5 years' service
- A very competitive pension scheme
- Flexible working opportunities
- Discount schemes
- Enhanced maternity, paternity, and adoption leave
- 6 days special paid leave to volunteer
- Free car parking
- Learning and development opportunities

We believe that everyone has the potential to make a difference and you will be supported throughout your career.

You can also undertake an apprenticeship as part of your role (apprenticeships range from GCSE to master degree equivalent).

Find your next opportunity

You can apply for current vacancies on Civil Service Jobs. To see the current civil servant vacancies at RAF High Wycombe, search using the postcode HP14 4UF. Make sure you set up job alerts!

Please check the eligibility criteria before applying.